II. INTRODUCTION

A. About the project

Urmul Trust is promoting the development of Urmul Natural Dyeing Cluster in the western Rajasthan district of Bikaner, with the support of IMEDF, New Delhi, and Desert Resource Centre. The grant for the entire intervention is coming from Ministry of MSME under its SFURTI scheme. The objective of this three-year programme is to:

- A. Supplementing the incomes earned by 500+ artisans through organized production of high value handmade nautical artefacts.
- B. Setting up of a state of craft facility for the processing, value addition and premium marketing of handmade products to create jobs and boost local economic development.
- C. Develop necessary institutional and governance support systems for facilitating the organized, holistic and sustainable development of the cluster.

Through this proposal, Urmul Trust, seeks an experienced technical consultant/consulting firm to provide consulting services of range - collectively represented as Technical framework for the Natural Dyeing Unit. Details of the same as mentioned in the sections further.

B. About Urmul Trust

In the last 35 years, Urmul ecosystem has worked in the desert region of Rajasthan, on a wide range of socio-economic development themes driven by partnerships. These partnerships are with communities, changemakers, facilitating agencies, governments and other stakeholders. Urmul Trust works on participatory, lasting, cost effective and high impact interventions covering a wide range of themes, and addressing 13 SDGs. Teams at Urmul have managed large-scale interventions on livelihoods – farm & non-farm, education, health, girl child, NRM and disaster mitigation. Spread in three verticals - capabilities, rights, and, social businesses - our work reaches out to over 2000 villages.

III. Scope of Work

A. Project Details

The project envisions development of a natural dyeing unit working with 600 artisans. A state of art dyeing unit shall work on dye synthesis as well as fabric and yarn dyeing.
